house recently owned by Mitchell & McNaghten and enlarged it to double its former size, thus making it the largest and most convenient house in the West. Having laid in a large stock of cooperage and salt at low prices, we are prepared to pay particular attention to the cutting, curing, and packing hogs in the most approved manner for foreign or domestic markets upon reasonable terms. We have floored peas sufficient to hold at least ten thousand hogs, and have enlarged our dry-houses (for hanging hogs when slaughtered) to such a size as to hang twenty-five hundred hogs. This, we think, offers considerable inducements to drovers and farmers, for, by putting their hogs in floored peas, they will not be so liable to get smothered and die, as when they are put into pens not floored. They will also be in much better order for slaughtering, besides which, as we have plenty of hanging room, the hogs will have time to get entirely cooled, before being cut, thus preventing any possibility of the hogs spoiling. We most respectfully solicit the patronage of the packers, drovers, and farmers.

DAVID WHITE.

N. B. As usual the hogs will be received at the top of the hill and driven to our pens free of charge. W., MeN. & B. Madiom, Ind., Oct. 2. (Madison Banner.) 36-2w when PUBLIC SALE OF REAL. ESTA'NE.
